

THE SQUABBLING FIGHTING AMONGST THE BRETHREN

November 26, 2023

1:01 a.m.

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

That sickened Me, servant. Those Christian men found so much pleasure in bringing down their brethren due to their misunderstanding of a Scripture passage.

It's the way they do it.

They say with their spirits showing to Me, "See! I know more than you. I can tell you do not know Hebrew. I cannot be deceived."

This is what I see: their puffed-up ways in their own seeing. And these same men will call you a heretic, a fake Christian who pretends. But I know you, and your books, your life, and the way you carry yourself prove your way of living with Me. These men, if they could only see. They only know in part, and learning all of the Bible and speaking Hebrew and Greek will not bring you a complete revelation.

The problem is that both sides have errors. Will they turn and drink Me? Even with seeing great power? It will take Yahweh actively surging. My heart is angry, servant. They hurt each other, and they put marks on their bedposts. They say, "I know Yahweh because I know how to study." I do not discourage studying. I do not discourage studying the Word. I am well pleased with those who do, but only when they love their brethren the way I want them to—not with demeaning ways, but with humble actions, lowering themselves, knowing they can also be deceived and must stay in the Great Holy Spirit's wisdom.

I am looking for those who will worship Me. How do you worship Yahweh? By memorizing the Bible? No. Walk with Me.