YAHWEH SAYS THE ENTIRE DETAIL:

Apostles only have the authority to say what Yahweh says to repeat. There must be a knowing that Yahweh allows or permits that action, whatever the apostolic member would say. Those in the office of the Apostle never lose their character or nature, yet there is a turning within, so they would sync more with what Yahweh has planned. And when they veer to do their own will, I draw them back just as I would any other member of My Church. The same can be said with Paul, who had a certain way of wanting to lead the Church way, yet he also carried traits of his upbringing as a Pharisee. I would have had to erase Paul's memory to make him turn and remove the Pharisee way in its entirety. Yet Paul was still useful. And so were the others in that office placement. Yet they were not perfect. They wrote letters not necessarily meant to be word-for-word in Scripture, yet based on their authoritative standing, various letters that a person wrote were added to Scripture and made authoritative.

Do you see it? It's not the title that makes someone carry an authoritative standing. Yahweh backing that person makes what is spoken to be in a place of authority. And so,

I look at these self-declaring prophets and apostles, pastors who should not be, and others who misled the people. I look at them and say, "Shouldn't there be an obvious backing from Yahweh for you to stand in those office placements?" Am I referring to seeing great power? No. I refer to a turning within that pushes a plan from Yahweh. It must always stem from Yahweh, your purpose of building up a work. One cannot say they hope that there will be this or that and use a title and then say, "Okay, Yahweh. Back up what I say." Trying to get Yahweh to do what you want is backward thinking. There is an amount of free will and voting in the church, hoping to do what Yahweh would be pleased with, but never should there be that claim that Yahweh will back something based on your assumption. And no church-ordered title that lacks Yahweh's backing will be honored by Yahweh. You can have the people stand with you, saying that you have a title, but what good will that do if there is no hearing from Yahweh?

Let Me say My words under a strong anger.

Apostles only have authority when saying what Yahweh says to REPEAT AND WILL GIVE A BACKING TO. You are not in an authoritative standing in saying your will based on having a church title. Yahweh is the only One who can yield apostles of authoritative standing, and only My called Apostles can have governing sayings that stem from what I say.

The authority stems from Yahweh, not from you! You cannot say something and expect Me to say, "Okay, I will bend to you, created one." Wake up! You speak your will and expect Yahweh to bring it forward. I do not stand with you in this detail, for Yahweh does not bow to how a person wants Yahweh to. Yahweh is self-standing, in no need of a human to make anything come forward. And I do not need you, dust speck, to agree with My plan, for I can do what I plan from past and now and into eternity. I AM.

Get off of your own made-up power and humble yourself.

You can say you declare the streets will taste like candy, but I will not back you. You can say whatever you want—but do not stand in your fake governing and declare you speak from Yahweh. There is a problem: you declare a plan without Yahweh and expect Yahweh to claim it as My own.

Woe. Woe. Woe.

I will review all churches that say they serve Yahweh, and I will strip away My presence as a sign of turning My face against your wicked ways.

You can wish for peace and unity, but no human has the power that will bring forward the thousand-year reign on Earth, right now manifested. Speak what Yahweh says. Stand with Yahweh's written Word. Stop making up your own "hope" list. I am not pleased with you. I do not stand with you in this.
